Offerors shall submit the following information as part of their proposal:

(a) A description of your government/commercial contracts received or performed during the past three years prior to closing of this solicitation. Government Contracts are defined as those with the Federal government and agencies of state and local governments.

- (1) Name of contracting activity/commercial firm
- (2) Contract number
- (3) Contract type (fixed price or cost reimbursable)
- (4) Total contract value
- (5) Description of work/NSN, Part Number, Nomenclature
- (6) Contracting officer/contract manager and telephone
- (7) Administrative contracting officer, if different from (6), and telephone
- (8) A brief summary of each contract cited, addressing the following factors below:

The offeror may provide information on problems encountered on the contracts identified in (a).

(b) The offeror shall submit the following information for evaluation:

(1) Past Performance:

(a) Factor 1: Past Performance:

Subfactor 1a: On-Time Delivery: The offeror shall provide information regarding recent, relevant past performance in the areas of timeliness of deliveries. The offeror must provide information for deliveries made, deliveries scheduled-to-be made, and deliveries rescheduled-to-be made during the period of recent past performance. Include all supporting information for verification purposes concerning all these covered deliveries, even though this supporting information may precede the period defined as recent above. If there was a slippage, the offeror shall provide all pertinent information regarding the slippage. If the offeror accelerated deliveries or increased production rates to meet the customers' needs, the offeror shall describe how their delivery/performance exceeded contract delivery requirements. Offerors shall also provide information regarding how well they worked with previous Government representatives by providing a brief narrative about past experiences where his responsiveness, thoroughness and expertise were a significant factor in a problem's resolution. For verification purposes, offerors shall furnish a point of contact/name, phone number, contract number and dollar value relative to the examples provided.

Subfactor 1b: Quality and/or Quality Program: Offerors shall provide information on their recent and relevant performance in the area of quality assurance, including quality assurance standards applied on recent, relevant contracts. The Government will evaluate all relevant quality issues that it discovers during the period of recent performance, regardless of when the actual delivery was made. The offeror will be required to submit data explaining corrective/preventive actions that have been taken to improve their process(es) and/or resolve their quality problems. The offeror shall disclose information about previous Request for Waivers (RFWs), Request for Deviations (RFDs), Quality Deficiency Reports (QDRs), First Article Test failures, Lot Acceptance Test failures, and/or other product quality or Quality Program related problems. Offerors' submissions must be clear and concise when describing the deficiency and stating the corrective/preventive action, when it was implemented, and its effectiveness. Offerors shall also provide information regarding how well they worked with previous Government representatives by providing a brief narrative about past experiences where his responsiveness, thoroughness and expertise were a significant factor in a problem's resolution. For verification purposes, offerors shall furnish a point of contact/name, phone number, contract number and dollar value relative to the examples provided.

(b) Factor 2: Technical Ability:

Subfactor 2a: Critical Skills, Processes and Procedures: The offeror shall provide information of their demonstrated ability to provide the technical expertise, equipment, processes and the personnel necessary to produce and deliver a quality product. The offeror may also provide evidence of related certifications, abilities, and/or capabilities that would enhance the technical expertise of the offeror. The offeror shall address, at a minimum, their ability to assure process controls associated with the procurement (of materials, components, etc.), fabrication, inspection, and testing of the MK14, including Material/Forgings; Heat Treating/Hardness; Machining and Threading; Application of Surface Treatments; and Magnetic Particle Inspection..

Subfactor 2b: Quality System: The offeror shall submit their General Quality Manual. The manual must demonstrate that the offeror's quality system meets the requirements of ISO 9002-1994 (or 9001-2000). The offeror shall provide specific input/information describing how they will comply with the requirements of the Quality Assurance Provisions (QAP). The offeror shall describe use of indicators and or metrics designed to provide feedback relating to the quality and conformance of the product to its design requirements. The offeror shall also provide information relative to preventive action initiatives being implemented. Evidence of quality awards and/or quality certifications should be submitted for consideration.

Subfactor 2c: Testing and Inspection: The offeror shall address their approach and their ability to meet and perform examinations and testing identified in the solicitation/technical data specifications, including, but not limited to, the First Article Test (FAT) and Lot Acceptance Test (LAT) requirements. The offeror shall also provide a time-phase schedule indicating the integration of inspection and testing requirements, procedures and plans, and primary raw material deliveries to meet the solicitation delivery requirements. The offeror shall provide information related to their equipment and techniques necessary to perform the tests and inspections, as well certifications and traceability of measurement standards for such equipment, where applicable.

(c) Factor 3: Price: The offeror shall submit a firm fixed price in Schedule B of the solicitation. Also, the offeror may submit a separate price for the evaluated option clause in Section I of the solicitation. If the offeror does not submit a separate price for the evaluated option clause, the price provided in the solicitation will be used.

(c) Information to be submitted: Offerors shall provide Best Value information by addressing each factor/sub-factor in the format and sequence identified in the solicitation. The offerors should provide information in sufficient detail to allow the Government to make best value assessment of the offerors past performance and technical abilities. The offeror shall identify key subcontractors and submit related Best Value information. Best Value information shall be submitted on CD-ROM (five copies, plus an original hardcopy), or if in hardcopy only, an original and four copies.

(d) Notice to offerors: an award will be made to the offeror whose Price, Technical Ability, and recent, relevant record of Past Performance provide the best value to the Government. Recent is defined as occurring within the past three (3) years prior to the solicitation's initial closing date. In addition, the Government has the right to consider information regarding contractor performance up to the date of award. Relevant is defined as having previously produced like or similiar items. Like or similiar items are defined as items that have been produced utilizing the same manufacturing processes, critical skills, and unique techniques needed to produce the MK14. A like item shall also have performed under similiar performance parameters and environmental conditions as the MK 14. The Government reserves the right to determine whether an item is like or similiar and whether production quantities apply to the current requirement for evaluation purposes. Offerors shall provide a brief narrative explanation of how/why they believe the experience is relevant.

The evaluation team may determine that an on-site visit or a Capability Study of the offeror's facility (of those offeror's determined to be in the competitive range), may be necessary to verify or confirm information submitted in the offeror's proposal; however, offeror's are cautioned that the Government intends to award without site visits, if practical. The competitive range shall include all of the most highly rated proposals unless the range is further reduced for purposes of efficiency.
